

Don't weaken Indiana's Law for telemarketers. I enjoy the tele-marketer free evening with my family. I pay for my phone service and should have control over people harassing me. Leave the law along and use your time where it's actually important to help the citizens of our great country.